

Using Data Collection to Go Faster!

Race Intelligence Seminars
Presented by Precision AutoResearch
Hosted by Havoc Motorsport

Two very informative sessions, presented by renowned race engineer and technical consultant, Dr. David Redszus, are guaranteed to help you learn quickly and go faster.

Saturday, March 6th, 2021

9am-noon

AIM Data Basic Training

This session will orient the novice user on setup and basic use of their systems, and how to navigate the analysis software. While oriented towards early adopters, those who are data-curious will find this interesting.

- System Selection Guidelines (Data-Video-Telemetry...)
- Navigating Setup and Driver Interface
- Analysis Software Navigation
- Basic Data Review
- Using Data-Integrated Video

1pm-4pm

Analysis Advanced Training

Intense focus on using data for formula and prototype vehicles, with advanced sensors. Participants in this session have typically used data for years, but are looking to take a step towards using the system like a pro.

- Use and limitations of real-time tire temps
- Ride-Height sensing and Aero Pressure
- Advanced use of math channels
- Review of Instant Corner Radius, GSUM, Wheelslip, etc.
- Output circuits for warning/relay control

These will be intense, informative sessions, not sales promos! Bring your laptop, open mind, and any questions. An informal question/answer session will be available after the seminars to discuss your specific applications

These will be held at:

HAVOC motorsport

3451 Centerpoint Way Joliet, IL 60436

Pre-registration is required (see reverse side)
